

Elizabeth Campbell-Chase is a seasoned real estate investor, contractor, and practicing Realtor/broker owner, she has been in the profession for 19 years with a focus in commercial, investments and property management. Known for her real estate investment track record of identifying, acquiring, and optimizing high-performing properties across Northern California. Elizabeth specializes in building scalable portfolios that generate long-term wealth and passive income.

As the founder of PCR Group Investments, Elizabeth has led the acquisition and management of over 750 doors, oversees and manages a diverse portfolio, closed millions in real estate transactions, and advised investors on building sustainable high-performing portfolios. In addition, driving results through efficient operations, proactive maintenance, and strong client relations.

In addition to her investor/management expertise, Elizabeth is a passionate educator and speaker, regularly presenting on topics such as investments portfolio, commercial advantages, property management best practices, regulatory compliance, tenant retention, and risk management.

With a strong foundation in both the practical and strategic aspects of investing, commercial property and property management, Elizabeth delivers real-world insights that help owners, investors, and fellow managers operate more efficiently and profitably.